With mobile data volumes expected to grow by over 25% annually, a significant portion of that data is transmitted by popular messaging platforms like Slack, Facebook Messenger, Snapchat, Skype and more. Increased diversity of platforms adds complexity when collecting & reviewing short messages and potentially further obfuscates signal from the noise. Consilio Complete Chat offers a comprehensive solution to processing a multitude of formats and preparing short messages for review.

Navigate Short Messaging Challenges Efficiently

Consilio's end-to-end solution enables an efficient and accurate review of short messages to lower overall project costs. Consilio Complete Chat delivers:

- Proven Mobile, Chat & Messaging Data Expertise – From Skype to Bloomberg Chat, Consilio experts have worked with law firms and corporate clients on hundreds of matters involving mobile, chat & messaging data.

- JSON/XML Formats converted (such as Slack, HipChat, Bloomberg Chat) into a user-friendly review experience in Relativity. Experts can accommodate format variants or other platforms with additional configuration.

- Mobile data converted into a reviewer-friendly experience in Relativity. Conversation messages are presented in familiar conversation threads, complete with functioning in-line multimedia (e.g. images and video) with timestamps.

- Immediate Insights – Highly experienced operating in the earliest moments of an investigation and leveraging exemplar data sets to complete configurations and help deliver immediate insights.

- Multilingual & Global Support – Mobile chat, messaging technologies and workflows can be adapted to any language including CJK. Certified & audited global infrastructure conforms data privacy & security regulations.
